

Jonathan Asser

Writer

For his psychodynamic group work with violent prisoners, Jonathan won the national Innovation Award from the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy, the largest therapy organisation in the UK. Jonathan is credited with developing a unique approach to working with the small number of violent gang members who dominated London's largest prison. Jonathan used this experience, along with his background as a poet, to write his first feature-length screenplay, STARRED UP.

Agents

Sean Gascoine

Associate Agent
Annie Shipton
ashipton@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 20 3214 0945

Credits

In Development

Production	Company	Notes
FLUSH	Eleven Film	Television
THE TIGER	Protozoa Pictures / Plan B	Film
PRETTY	Cowboy Films Ltd	Film

Film

Production	Company	Notes
------------	---------	-------

STARRED UP Sigma Films Original screenplay
Director: David Mackenzie
Winner: Best British Newcomer (London Film Festival)
Winner: Writer Film/Television (Scottish BAFTA)
Winner: Best Film (Scottish BAFTA)
Winner: Best First Screenplay (WGGB Awards)
Nominee: Best British Independent Film (BIFA)
Nominee: Best Screenplay (BIFA)

Other

Production	Company	Notes
SHAME/VIOLENCE INTERVENTION	Palgrave Macmillan Cham	Book chapter in 'Interdisciplinary Applications of Shame/Violence Theory', edited by Roman Gerodimos.
IDENTITY PARADE: NEW BRITISH AND IRISH POETS	Bloodaxe	Poetry anthology
OUTSIDE THE ALL STARS	Arc Publications	Poetry book
THE SWITCH	Donut Press	Poetry pamphlet
