

Phil Earle

Children's Author

Phil is slightly obsessive about children's fiction, so it isn't a surprise that he decided to try and write some himself.

His debut novel, BEING BILLY, was nominated for a dozen awards, including the Carnegie Medal and the Waterstones Children's Book Prize.

He lives with his family in London, writes on the bus and has no plans to write a novel for adults, although he might read one. One day.
