

Rebecca Pritchard

Rebecca is a co-presenter on Quests' long-running flagship show, 'Salvage Hunters' and Salvage Hunters: The Restore. Rebecca's role is to analyse the history and provenance behind the decorative antiques that Drew Pritchard brings back, the restoration work needed and costs versus profits. Behind the scenes she researches items for her own lines.

Outside TV life Rebecca has her own business as a Dealer, Researcher and Finder of Decorative Antiques. Using her vast experience and contacts in the world of dealers, restorers, fairs, auctions and her online research knowledge she specialises in sourcing unique decorative items for private clients and interior designers. Her passion is for resourcefulness in finding a decorative antique and sending it on a new journey fit for purpose.

She is also currently involved in property refurbishments and has previously bought and run a campsite, a B&B and holiday let businesses.

Rebecca's life before the antiques trade were twenty years in women's fashion, covering wholesale, retail and manufacturing in the UK and Hong Kong. Rebecca holds a clean driving license and is a competent 7.5 tonne lorry driver. She is an animal lover, horse rider, cook, caravanner and a boat owner who resides between Chester and her boat in London.
