"Startlingly vivid"

"Compelling NHS-set drama of self-doubt and the struggle to keep hope alive"

★ ★ ★ ★ Clive Davis, The Times

"The beauty of this piece is that it speaks in a universal language"

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Stuart Midwinter, Curtain Call

"If you only get chance to see one show this year, choose this one. Easily one of the best pieces of theatre I've seen for a long time. I encourage everyone to watch, you will not be disappointed."

★ ★ ★ ★ Olivia Rook, London Theatre

"Chetin-Leuner's vision of the NHS is perceptive and devastatingly accurate, and her characters are so well drawn that they convey all the nuances of real people"

★ ★ ★ ★ Louisa Clarke, West End Best Friend

"It is clear Sophia Chetin-Leuner knows how to command an audience, showing a complete absence of the word 'throwaway' anywhere in her vocabulary and a pleasing affection for moments of silence holding a range of meaning, from tension to sadness to humour."

"Jay is a perfect vehicle for the beautiful metaphors and writing of wonderful precision, insight and perspective that Sophia Chetin-Leuner achieves."
