

Antonia Honeywell

Writer

Antonia Honeywell writes, sings, maintains a lively sourdough starter and is constantly surprised by how quickly the children grow up. Her voracious reading habit fuels her warm and incisive interviewing both on her regular local radio show, Booktime Brunch (every Monday morning from 10-12 on Chiltern Voice) and as host and chair of a range of book events. Her writing is driven by a desire to explore human connections in an increasingly polarised world.

The Ship 2015 Weidenfeld & Nicholson	Welcome to London, but not as you know it. Oxford Street burned for three weeks; Regent's Park has been bombed; the British Museum is occupied by those with nowhere else to go. Lalla has grown up sheltered from the chaos, but now she's sixteen, her father decides it's time to use their escape route - a ship big enough to save five hundred people. Once on board, as day follows identical day, Lalla's unease grows. Where are they going? What does her father really want? What is the price of salvation?
