

Shyvonne Ahmmad

Actor

Shyvonne will next be seen in Steven Knight's upcoming series for the BBC, THIS TOWN.

Most recently, Shyvonne performed as 'Malcolm' in MACBETH directed by Wils Wilson at the RSC. In 2022 Shyvonne performed as Junia in BRITANNICUS at the Lyric Hammersmith Theatre, directed by Atri Banerjee.

Over the summer of 2021 Shyvonne understudied the leading role of 'Marianne' in the Donmar's West End production of CONSTELLATIONS, directed by Michael Longhurst. Prior to that, Shyvonne played 'Ash Majee' in UKTV original series, ANNIKA, for Alibi.

During her training at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, Shyvonne played 'Sol' in Tim Crouch's play, Total Immediate Collective Imminent Terrestrial Salvation

'Best of all is newcomer Shyvonne Ahmmad's Sol, whose gleaming eyes and facial grimaces convey the guileless thoughts and irrational bewilderment of the true believer.'
