

Keith Robinson

Children's Illustrator

When Keith was small he was desperate to get to Narnia. He had a habit of walking into other people's wardrobes, which must have been awkward for his parents. Eventually he discovered the next best way of travelling to other worlds was to lose himself in drawing them.

Agents

Emily Talbot

etalbot@unitedagents.co.uk