

Eamonn O'Neill

Children's illustrator

Eamonn O'Neill grew up on the south east coast of Ireland. He studied animation at the National Film School, Dublin and later at the Royal College of Art, London. His work in short films led to a BAFTA nomination in 2014. Since then he has worked designing and directing animation projects for children and adults alike. Eamonn's love of bold, colourful characters and storytelling informs his picture book illustrations.
