

Ruby Wright

Children's author/illustrator

Ruby Wright grew up in a house up a track in Dorset surrounded by chickens. She spent her time drawing, dressing up and making dens. When she got big, she moved to London, went to art school, got a job at the BBC, married a scientist and had two children (not in that order). Now she is an illustrator and writer. She grows plants on the roof of her block of flats and is thinking of getting a chicken...
