

Lavinia Scott-Quinn

Director/Writer

Lavinia is a British-Romanian actress and classical pianist turned writer-director. She directed Acceptable Damage, which won Best Action Film at the 2021 National Film Awards against stalwart favourites 1917 and The Aeronauts. Lavinia both wrote and directed her first feature Memento Amare which centers around the Eastern European immigrant experience in the UK, shooting it in only 3 days! Memento Amare was a semifinalist at the Los Angeles Cinefest and selected for the 2017 Best Film Awards.
