

Luke Redfern

Children's Author

Luke studied art and design before working in several creative jobs, the highlights of which include working on an international opera, building a robot dog, and designing a toy Christmas sprout. At some point on this journey he began to write Children's books. He is a graduate of Bath Spa University's MA in Writing for Young People, where he won the annual award for the most promising writer for young people.

Agents

Emily Talbot

etalbot@unitedagents.co.uk