

Talitha Stevenson

Writer / Director

Talitha Stevenson is a writer-director working across film and television. She adapted THE RADLEYS by Matt Haig as a feature film, produced by Genesius Pictures, directed by Euros Lyn, and starring Damian Lewis and Kelly Macdonald.

Talitha's first film as writer-director, LATE IN SUMMER, is in the late stages of development and it will once again see Debbie Gray producing through Genesius Pictures with Timothy Spall as exec producer. LATE IN SUMMER was pre-bought by Lionsgate with Emily Watson, Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje and Harriet Walter attached and Christopher Doyle on board as DoP.

Talitha published three novels with Virago and has worked as a journalist. She is a psychotherapist in private practice in London.
