

Jasmine Naziha Jones

Writer

Jasmine is a writer and performer. Her debut play, Baghdaddy, premiered downstairs at the Royal Court Theatre in 2022 and was finalist for the Susan Smith Blackburn Prize 2024. She was commissioned by The Globe Theatre as part of 'Burnt At The Stake', a co-production with Hannah Khalil and Morgan Lloyd Malcolm. Jasmine co-wrote the musical 'The Sisters' which premiered at Latitude Festival. She has several scripted projects in development and was recently writer on attachment at the Royal Shakespeare Company.

Agents

Florence Hyde

fhyde@unitedagents.co.uk

Credits

In Development

Production	Company	Notes
BURNT AT THE STAKE 2023	Globe Theatre

Television

Production	Company	Notes
COMING HOME 2023	Indefinite Films	Writers room

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
------------	---------	-------

BAGHDADDY

2022

Royal Court Theatre Jerwood Theatre, Downstairs

Dir. Milli Bhatia

Nominated for the Susan Smith Blackburn Award 2024

Long-listed for the Women's Prize for Playwriting 2021 and the Verity Bargate Award 2022

Published by Methuen
