

THE LITERARY & TALENT AGENCY

Daniel Slater

Director

London born Daniel Slater is internationally recognised as one of today's leading opera directors. He made his European debut at Opera North in 1998, with a production of The Bartered Bride that was nominated for numerous major awards and went to the Opéra National du Rhin the following year. His American debut followed three years later, an award-winning and much-acclaimed production of Wozzeck at the Santa Fe Festival. On both sides of the Atlantic, his shows are known for their wit and humanity, intelligence and originality, clarity and modernity.
