MADFABULOUS 2024	Mad As Birds	Director Executive Producer - Mad As Birds. Starring Callum Scott-Howells, Ruby Stokes, Rupert Everett, and Paul Rhys. Billed as an "LGBTQ+ extravaganza," written by Lisa Baker. Based upon a true story of Henry Cyril Paget, 5th Marquess of Anglesey: one of the richest men in Britain; an obscure theatrical dandy; a dreamer with no limits who inherited the equivalent of £11m a year and died penniless; lost, ill and forgotten at the age of twenty-nine in the south of France. A tale of the ultimate poor-little-rich-boy, a victim of excess and neglect - who spent more than he was given, gave more than he took but invited the world to look at him for what he truly was...a Twentieth Century Boy.

Writer and Director. Short Film.

A teenage girl reinvents the gang who bully her in a letter to herself, taking them and her on a journey of self discovery out of a south London council estate to the coast of Brighton. A right of passage which offers questions about choices we make and the ones that are made for us. It explores the feelings of being tipped out of the arms of childhood and into the unknown
