

Rawah Badrawi and Suzanne Zeidy

Rawah Badrawi is a writer and mentor, often pursuing projects that reflect her interest in Egyptian culture and heritage. She holds a bachelor's degree in Economics and History from Georgetown University. Her career in finance from 1996 to 2010 spanned New York, Bogotá, London and Cairo. In 2012, she wrote the book Siwa, a photographic memoir about the remote Saharan Oasis in Egypt's Western Desert, published by Haven Books of Hong Kong. All proceeds of the book are donated to Tawasol, an initiative that empowers women in distressed communities in Cairo.
