

Denis Angelov

Children's Illustrator

Denis is a children's book illustrator, based in Sofia, Bulgaria, who sometimes also writes. In his illustration style he mostly works with bold expressive lines, wonky shapes, limited palettes and subtle painterly textures. He's addicted to buying art materials, and mostly works in mixed media just so he can use up said materials. He studied Art Education and Pedagogy in Sofia University, which allowed him to try his hand at drawing, painting, printmaking and sculpture.
