

Mary Craig

Author

Mary Craig has written a wide range of books including THE LAST FREEDOM, MAN FROM A FAR COUNTRY, LONGFORD: A BOIOLOGICAL PORTRAIT, CANDLES IN THE DARK, THE CRYSTAL SPIRIT and SPARK FROM HEAVEN. Recently she has been involved in the plight of Tibet under Chinese occupation and has written two books about that situation, TEARS OF BLOOD and KUNDUN: a biography of Dalai Lama and his family.

Publications

Other

Publication Details	Notes
His holiness the dalai lama: in my own words 2001 hodder & stoughton	At the heart of all the Dalai Lama's teaching is the plea for compassion and non-violence, the essential goodness of the human heart and the need to live well and die well. This collection reflects the breadth of his teaching but also its utter simplicity and is an ideal introduction as well as an inspiring companion.
Waiting for the sun 1999 hodder & stoughton	the last freedom ISBN-0-34-069078-X Publisher: hodder & stoughton Published: july 1997
kundun: a biography of the family of the dalai lama 1997 harper collins	Blessings ISBN-1-89-373219-3 Publisher: hodder & stoughton Published: september 1994
tears of blood: a cry for tibet 1992 harper collins	spark from heaven ISBN-0-87793-386-3 Publisher: hodder & stoughton Published: august 1988

Publication Details	Notes
the crystal spirit 1984 hodder & stoughton	candles in the dark ISBN-0-34-034254-4 Publisher: hodder & stoughton Published: march 1984
Mother theresa 1983 trafalgar square publishing	pope john paul II isbn-0-23-760005-6 publisher: Evans brothers ltd. published: april 1982
