

Molly Dineen

Documentary Director

Molly Dineen was awarded The Grierson Memorial Trust 2003 Trustees' Award for outstanding contribution to the art of documentary and won a BAFTA and Grierson Award for her last film THE LIE OF THE LAND.

Molly's collected works are available in a 3 volume DVD put together by the BFI.

Agents

---

Anthony Jones

Associate Agent

Danielle Walker

dwalker@unitedagents.co.uk

+44 (0) 20 3214 0858

Credits

---

Documentaries

---

| Production                   | Company      | Notes   |
|------------------------------|--------------|---|
| BEING BLACKER2018 | RTO Pictures | 90 minute intimate portrait of Jamaican born reggae producer, businessman, father, son and community figure, Blacker Dread.* Nominated for Best Single Documentary - Grierson Awards 2019* Nominated for Diversity in Factual Production - Screen Nation Film & TV Awards |

---

| Production                                     | Company | Notes  |
|---|----------------|---|
| THE LIE OF THE LAND2007                    | Channel 4      | 90 minute documentary portrait of the British countryside and the demise of farming.* Winner of Best Single Documentary, BAFTA Awards 2008* Winner of Grand Jury Prize, Visions du Reel, Neon, Switzerland 2007* Winner of Best Documentary on a Contemporary Issue, Grierson Awards 2008 |
| THE LORDS TALE2002                         | Channel 4      | 75 minute documentary about the reform of the House of Lords  |
| GERI1999                                   | Channel 4      | 90 minute documentary portrait of Geri Halliwell (Ginger Spice) in the 3 months after her departure from the Spice Girls. A portrait of the predicament of the modern celebrity.* Indies Award nomination   |
| TONY BLAIR1997                             |                | A 10-minute portrait of Tony Blair, screened across all 4 television channels just prior to the election campaign of 1997.  |
| IN THE COMPANY OF MEN1995                  | BBC 2          | Three 1 hour films with "The Prince of Wales" company of the Welsh Guards, an elite regiment in the British Army, on a tour of duty in Northern Ireland.* Women in Film and Television - Broadcasters contribution to the medium award  |
| THE ARK1993                                | BBC 2          | A series of four 1 hour films about London Zoo during a 6 month period of crisis* BAFTA Award - Best Series* Special Commendation - Prix Europa* Voice of Viewers and Listeners 1993 - Best Television Programme* Indies 1994 - Documentaries and Features Award                      |
| THE PICK, THE SHOVEL AND THE OPEN ROAD1990 | Channel 4      | 60 minute film about the Irish roadwork company McNicholas  |
| HEART OF THE ANGEL1989                     | BBC 2          | 40 minute documentary about people working round the clock at the Angel underground station.* British Film Institute - nominated for Grierson* Royal Television Society - Documentary Award* British entry for Prix Europa  |
| MY AFRICAN FARM1988                        | BBC 2          | 40 minute portrait of old colonial Sylvia Richardson and her servants on her farm in Kenya over Christmas.* BFI - Kodak Newcomers of the Year Award 1988* Prix des Bibliothèques - Lyon Biennale Europeane de Cinema 1989   |

| Production   | Company                      | Notes  |
|---|-------------------------------------|---|
| OPERATION RALEIGH, THE MOUNTAIN, THE VILLAGE1988 | BBC 2                               | Operation Raleigh was founded by HRH The Prince of Wales to give young people the benefit of war time in peace. Two 30-minute films about an expedition to Southern Chile.  |
| HOME FROM THE HILL1985                           | National Film and Television School | 58 minute documentary about retired soldier and safari operator, Colonel Hook, returning from Kenya to England* BAFTA nomination* Royal Television Society Prize* Documentary Prize - Uppsala Film Festival, Sweden* TV Suisse Rommande Prize - Nyon Doc Festival* First Prize (student category) - Anthropolos* Documentary Festival, Los Angeles* BFI Grierson Award nomination |