

Emma Taylor

Writer

Emma Taylor was a writer on Paul Abbott's SHAMELESS and has recently been developing several original ideas for TV and theatre. Her play LITTLE SMARTIE deals with the pressures of the 11+ through the eyes of a Northern single mother, determined to get her super-bright daughter into grammar school. Emma's original drama serial, UNDER ONE ROOF, is currently in development with the BBC; a domestic thriller, in which an elderly widow moves in with her son, only to find family life is far from harmonious.
