FLAWED ANGEL 2005 Vintage	With original poems embedded like gems in the text, FLAWED ANGEL is a fable for all ages, full of shivers and delights, sadness and wonder.
THE MEMOIRS OF LAETITIA HORSEPOLE 2002 Chatto & Windus	Shamelessly enjoyable, teasingly allusive, irresistibly funny and sometimes sad, Laetitia's is quite simply a brilliant and bewitching romance full of truths that lie deeper than fact.

NEW SELECTED POEMS

A welcome new selection of John Fuller's poems, taken from his last eight collections and spanning over two decades of work. This rich selection of John Fuller's poems, made by the author himself, is taken from his last eight collections and spans over twenty-five years of work.

2012 Vintage

'Everything goes back to earth,' writes Fuller, 'But first it must dance / Dance to exhaustion.' His poems, brilliant in their dexterity and virtuoso in their use of form, engage with a spectacular range of subjects, revealing a dark, haunted imagination leavened by moments of exuberant levity.

Taken together, they form an elegant, inquiring and accomplished body of work, and one that confirms John Fuller as a significant and influential figure in British poetry.

Publication Details	Notes
GRAVEL IN MY	Bright, elemental and as dexterously brilliant as ever, John Fuller's latest
SHOE	collection takes as its subject 'our ends and our origins'. Here are songs,
2014	serenades, literary cameos, an ode to a golden anniversary, a long letter to an
Chatto & Windus	old friend, and two majestic sequences: one dedicated to the Welsh woman of the woods, Mary Price; the other, sun-drenched sonnets that keenly observe the natural world against 'the flavour of our own mortality'.
	With wit, warmth and wisdom, Gravel in My Shoe playfully balances the light and shade of life, in full awareness of its passing but with a spring in its step nevertheless. It shows us, ultimately, that 'life is too short, but poetry's eternal'.
